NEWPORT STATEMENTS.

DR. LIGHTHILL
CAN BE CONSULTED AT THE
PERRY HOUSE, Newport,
DURING THE WHOLE DAY AND EVENING OF
Thursday May 8th.
CONSULTATION FREE.
From Mr John H. Crosby Jr., of Newport, R. I.

DR. LIGHTHILL:
For several years I have been afflicted ozenae, or a severe offensive catarrh, which has been a source of great annoyance to me. The discharges were very offensive, the obnoxiousness would almost be suffocating. During the two months I have used your treatment all these symptoms have disappeared and I cheerfully recommend you to others similarly afflicted.
JOHN H. CROSBY, jr.

From Mrs. Joseph Bateman, 9 Kay Street, Newport.

Dr. Lighthill's treatment for catarrh has done me a great deal of good during the short time I am using it, the dropping in my throat has stopped, my head feels clear, and I feel a great deal stronger and healthier han before. I have had the catarrh ever since I was seven years old, am now over sixty. I earnestly recommend the treatment to all sufferers from catarrh.
MRS. JOSEPH BATEMAN.

From Mrs. C. S. Davis,
No. 9 Kay Street, Newport.

My daughter who has had the catarrh for five years has been treated by Dr. Lighthill for two months with good success. The hardened discharges which annoyed her very much, ad which required great exertion to expel, have ceased to form. The treatment was a painless one, and easily applied.
MRS. C. S. DAVIS.

From Mr. James H. White, 317 Thames Street, Newport.

Dr. Lighthill's treatment in my case of catarrh was in the highest degree beneficial. It has relieved the dropping in my throat, together with the other disagreeable symptoms attending this complaint. I cheerfully recommend it to the people as a painless and efficient one.
JAMES H. WHITE.

From Capt. Benjamin Brayton,
BRISTOL, R. I.

DR. LIGHTHILL:
Last Fall you cured my catarrh, and up to this my head has felt perfectly clear and well, so that I can now sleep with my mouth closed.
BENJAMIN BRAYTON.

From Mr. Joseph Smith
OF NEWPORT,
Dr. Lighthill's treatment for the cure of Catarrh has been highly beneficial in my case, which was of long standing.
JOSEPH SMITH,
Town Court.

Mr. Arthur Boyd,
Residing on Bath Road, Newport, certifies as follows:
This is to certify that I was almost blind with an inflamed eye, and that I was very weak and exhausted, scarcely able to be about, and while other means failed to give me relief, Dr. Lighthill in two weeks' time restored my sight, healed my eye and now I am strong and well again to be about my usual business.
ARTHUR BOYD.
Boston, March 8, 1873.

CARD, SPECIAL.
For nineteen years I have devoted my exclusive attention to all diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose, Throat and Chest. My specialty embraces the cure of Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma, Consumption, the removal of Deafness, Discharges from the Ear, Noises in the Head, the Restoration of Sight, and the treatment of all diseases leading to Debility and Consumption.
My office is at No. 3 1-2 Beacon street, Boston, where I have been in constant practice for the last 14 years, and where I can be found daily excepting Thursdays. My treatment is painless, can be applied by the patients themselves at their own homes, and will not prevent them from pursuing their usual avocation.
Patients under my care may expect to recieve every benefit guaranteed by science, skill and comprehensive experience. I can tell on the first examination, whether a disease curable or not, and in no case will I encourage treatment unless there are reasonable chances of success.

The Tongue of Slander.

The tongue of slander is never tired. In one way or another it manages to keep itself in constant employment. Sometimes it drops honey and sometimes gall. It is, bitter now, and then sweet. It insinuates or assails directly, according to circumstances. It will hide a curse under a smooth word, and administer poison in the phrase of love. Like death it "loves a shining mark." And it is never so voluble and eloquent as when it can blight the hopes of the noble, soil the reputation of the pure, and break down the character of the brave and strong. And how much of this vile work is done in one way and another in society—Perhaps men and women often slander without meaning to. Though we think this is rarely done. For it is a fact that wicked work forces itself always on our consciences, whereas the holier and diriuer our work, the more is it done in beautiful and peaceful consciousness. So it is written: "The wicked flee when no man pursueth while the righteous is bold as a lion." Be this as it may, it is done to the hurt and agony of many a soul. It is done by a look sometimes, by the curl of the lip, by the wink of an eye, by an insinuation, a phrase of suspicion, by the dexterous and malicious handling of a rumor—in a thousand ways are men and women stung by the poisoned arrow shot from the devil's tongue of slander.

What pleasure man or woman can find in such work we have never been able to see. And yet there is pleasure of some sort in it to multitudes, or they would not betake themselves to it. Some passion of soul or body must be gratified by it.

But no soul in high estate can take delight in it. It indicates lapse, tendency toward chaos, utter depravity. It proves that somewhere in the soul there is weakness, and waste. Education and refinement are no proof against it. It often holds most cruelly where there have attained their best results. These often only polish the slanderous tongue, increase its tact, and give it suppleness and strategy to do its death-work.—THE CHURCHMAN.

CLASTER POWDERS,
For Horses, Cattle, Sheep and Swine.
THESE Powders have been used for three years with great success, and the undersigned would call the attention of the public to the fact that there is nothing that excels them for the cure of worms, kidney complaint, loss of appetite, coughs, colds, and leaves the system, in all cases, in a healthy condition. It is well to give a powder occasionally to animals that do not appear to be unwell, as it prevents the accumulation of worms and prevents internal diseases. Please see circulars for all particulars. The coopers of New York struck some days ago because their employers bought some of their barrels from Maine, where they are made cheaper than they can be in New York, the effect of this being to diminish the amount of business for the coopers in the latter city. The employers have been compelled to yield. The coopers of New York are consistent protectionists. If they ought to be protected from cheap labor in Europe there are equally strong reasons why they should be protected from cheap labor in Maine. The logical result of protection is a tariff between the states. This can be seen by looking across the ocean.

The various colonies of Australia have long sought the privilege of taxing their imports from each other, and at last the English Parliament has granted them this authority. Now New South Wales can "protect" herself from Victoria, Victoria from South Australia, and the latter can retaliate on New South Wales. And so, if the policy of the late Horace Greeley prevails in our country, New York can protect her coopers from the cheap coopers of Maine, and Maine can protect her stony wheat fields from the broad acres of Illinois, and Illinois can protect herself from the factories of Pawtucket and Woonsocket.

THE USURY LAW.

There is no good reason why the rate of interest should be fixed by law any more than the rate of house rent or the price of wheat. There was a time when it was considered competent for the government to fix all of these things, but the times change and the statute book is changed with them. Yet this relic of the middle ages, when everybody believed in the divine right of kings and nobody had thought of political economy, still remain among the statutes of New York though of course it is impossible to execute it.

We approve in particular of what the grand jury says in the following extract from its report in favor of a repeal of the law, in regard to the bad effects of a dead law.

The report of the grand jury says: "The absurdity of the law and its unpopularity since it has been abolished in the neighboring States is so great that not a man can be found who will aid the authorities in discovering the infractors of it. Nothing can be more demoralizing than to have on the statute book of the State laws which are disregarded by men of undoubted integrity and standing in the community. Any person acquainted with the practical effects of usury laws on the price of money at monetary centres cannot but see that the enormous rates which have been so long paid in this city are due almost entirely to the existence of such laws. In no other part of the world are such high rates known, and nothing but the great prosperity of the country has enabled the financial community to stand up so long under them. It is perfectly well understood that the enormous rates paid by the stock speculators have had the effect of drawing the capital of the city from its ordinary or legitimate channels, thus shutting off the merchant and trader from the possibility of obtaining money at moderate rates of interest such as an ordinary business can stand."

AN EXPLANATION.

It is the belief of Gen. Butler, the man that newspapers did not make, that journalists misstate events intentionally, so that they may contradict one day what was said the day before, and thus make two items when they could have had but one had they told the truth. In respect to ourselves we deny this charge; when we make a statement we do so because we believe it, and have good reason to believe it.

When we said that Timothy and Michael Foley got liquor at the saloon of Mr. Horgan we said so because Michael Foley told us so. But Mr. Horgan tells us that such was not the case, so we must conclude that Michael was too bewildered at finding himself behind bars before he had been a week in the land of liberty, to know exactly what he was saying.

Mr. Horgan doesn't think we entertain a just estimate of his place of business when we call it a nuisance which ought not to be tolerated, but he kindly waives this as it is only a matter of opinion. He does not think that "saloon" is exactly the term to describe it by, as it is a grocery store, where he sells groceries, both dry and wet. But the point that he takes exception to, is that we charge him with keeping his place open on the first day of the week, the same being the Lord's day. This he says is not true, and we therefore fully withdraw the charge. Mr. Horgan complains that our misstatement has already injured his business. So far as this means that it has diminished his sales of liquor we cannot feel very badly, but so far as it means that we have accused a man who keeps within the law, of having violated it, and been guilty of an act which would vitiate his license, so far we acknowledge ourselves in the wrong, and make such reparation as is in our power.

STATE MISCELLANY.

It is expected that Block Island will have an unusual rush of visitors the coming summer. Already many have engaged room and board there before the season.

Captain Jessie Mott, so long and favorably known to the traveling public as master of various passenger and freight steamers, plying between Providence and New York, for the past eighteen years, has resigned his position as master of the Steamer Electra, and is now master of the steamer Stonington of the Stonington and New York line.

Rev. H. W. Conant was at Graniteville (Johnston) Sunday, at half past ten o'clock A. M.; Allenville, at two P. M., and Georgiaville in the evening. This evening he will will be at Peckham's Hall in Simmonsville. He will be assisted there by Rev. W. F. Davis, of Olneyville. He will attend the quarterly convention of Good Templars at Central Falls on Wednesday.

S. O. Prentice of North Stonington will be one of the Speakers at the next commencement at Yale.

It is not an uncommon thing on the Pacific slope for editors to get rich and retire from business. Charles Newell of the Oregon Herald is the latest victim of this sort.

The commander of the British gunboat Plover has demanded the removal of O'Kelly to Havana for trial, an immediate change from his present place of confinement. The impression here is that the interference of the British commander will only complicate matters, without benefiting O'Kelly.

The Great Eastern and Edinburgh will leave the latter part of this month to lay the cable from Valentia to Heart's Content. The Great Eastern will then return to repair the broken Anglo-American cable, and the Edinburgh will proceed to lay two new cables between Valentia, Newfoundland, and St. John, Cape Breton. It is expected that four cables will be working across the Atlantic and five across the Gulf of St. Lawrence before the first of September.

A railway station is to be built at Seaside, North Plymouth, Mass. The place is rapidly growing.

The North Bridgewater, Mass., Gazette has entered upon its 23d volume, and has been enlarged by the addition of four columns, printed from new type, on a new cylinder press of Cottrell and Babcock's manufacture.

The young women's home at Lowell, Mass., was recently dedicated. It is designed as a home for worthy young women out of employment, and to aid them in procuring work, as well as to take care, during work hours, of children whose mothers are employed in the mills.

The French Catholics of Burlington, Vt., are about to purchase ground for a new church.

New Haven rejoices over the prospect of two immense coal depots which the Reading and the New Jersey Central railroads will probably build in that city, this season.

The State constabulary in Lowell, Mass., have begun a warfare against the liquor sellers. Four of them were before the Police Court, Saturday morning, and each were found guilty and sentenced to the House of Correction for twenty days.

The town collector of Rumford has left for parts unknown, with funds of the town and of private persons. The town has sued his bondsmen. Is it possible that a town by the name of *Rum*ford is tolerated in Maine?

A young man named Oscar M. Holbrook of Blackstone, Mass., is missing, and it is feared he was one of the victims of the Richmond Switch disaster, as he was expected from New York on that day. He has aged parents in that town.

A person in Southbridge, Mass., claims that he was the inventor of the far-famed mitrailleuse. He says he made one, many years ago, which was stolen from him and taken out of the country, and from that the Frenchmen first got their idea of such an implement.

The Leeds Satin Manufacturing Company of Rockville, Ct., have made a formal assignment of their effects. It is believed the company will be able to pay seventy-five cents on the dollar: $20,000 was recently lost by them in bad debts. Work has been closed in the mills since March. The Panola, Carlisle and Sulpsic Mills, at the same place, are lying idle. The failure of the Carlisle Thread Company has involved all these companies. The Rockville banks hold a large amount of the Carlisle Thread Company's paper.

The sixth reunion and celebration of the Society of the Burnside Expedition and the Ninth Army Corps, which is to begin on Tuesday of next week, at New Haven, will last three days. Gen. Grant will review the Second Connecticut regiment, on Thursday, and in the evening a grand civic and military ball will be given. Gen. Burnside, who is now the commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, the Army of the Potomac, and the Society of the Burnside Expedition and the Ninth Army Corps, hopes to meet, at New Haven, the representatives of the Massachusetts regiments who conferred so much lustre upon the Burnside Expedition. The executive committee consists of Gen. John L. Otis, Chaplain H. Clay Trumbull, Col. H. B. Crosby, Lieut.-Col. W. V. Hutchings, Maj. James B. Bell and Gen. Edward Harland.

A stock company is to be formed at New Haven for the conversion of old muslin de laine dresses into wool. The process is not at all like that of the shoddy manufacture, as the fibre of the wool or cotton is left in its original length, and the wool is, barring the color, the same as though it had not been woven. Material costing two or three cents a pound is quickly converted into material worth twenty-three cents a pound.

THE NEWPORT MANUFACTURING COMPANY.

An extensive brass foundry.—Ingenious machinery.—A direct valve.—Improved hose coupling.

The Newport Manufacturing Company began their building two years ago this month, and commenced work about one year ago. The Company consists of Messrs. Joshua Sayer, Job T. Langley, James B. Finch, and W. H. Bliss. Mr. Bliss has sole charge of the works and it is to his inventive genius that the company owes its patent rights, and the various appliances which are used only in this establishment, and which give it a considerable advantage over its rivals.

The articles made here are all varieties of steam and gas fitters supplies, hose couplings, and watergates. The building is of brick, neat, commodious and substantial. The motive power is furnished by an engine of thirty horse power. The cylinder is twelve inches by thirty, and the steam is generated in an upright tubular boiler. The engine is connected with one of Blake's large fire pumps having a ten inch cylinder.

The office and showroom form an ell about thirty feet square. From them the visitor passes into the heavy turning room, a room one hundred feet long and forty-five feet wide, with an ell thirty feet square. This room contains about fourteen iron-turning lathes, drills and planers. All the iron work is done here. The machinery is chiefly employed in making water gates for street mains. These gates are fitted for pipes of any diameter, from three to forty inches. They vary in height from a few inches to ten feet, and in cost from $20 to $2500. The company makes all the usual kinds of globe and quick-opening valves, but is principally interested in making a new and beautiful article invented by Mr. Bliss himself. This is known as the "Direct Valve," and was patented in April 1872. This valve gives a direct through passage, of the full size of the pipe.—It has two disks either of which will operate alone if its mate gives out. The seats are not parallel, but divergent, and hence compel the disks to act as a wedge, and are positively held to their seats by inclined guides which determine the pressure on the back of the disks when the valve is closed. This valve moves or starts promptly and with ease, from the fact of the seats being divergent and the disks loose on the guides, and hence a facility of movement under pressure. The stem of this valve rotates without rising, requiring much less room for working than other valves of a similar class, this being overcome by a thread on the lower part of the stem, engaging with a nut inside the valves or disks, and they are thus raised and lowered in the rotation of the spindle, and thus again another obvious objection is overcome by less liability to bend or leak around the stem. Adjoining, and opening out of the heavy turning room, is the blacksmith's shop. The forges are worked with blowers, and all the smoke is drawn off through an under ground pipe to the main smoke stack. So perfectly does the draft work that the timbers of the roof are as clean as when they left the saw mill, though the shop has been used for a year.

Beyond the heavy turning room is the brass foundry. The brass of commerce consists of two parts of copper, and one of zinc, but this company makes its own brass, every hundred pounds of which contains eighty-six pounds of copper, six pounds of tin, and eight pounds of zinc.

The furnaces are square, brick lined, iron boxes let down below the level of the floor. The ingredients are put into an earthen crucible, and then set down in the middle of the fire. Mr. Bliss has very ingeniously located those furnaces around a large brick oven in which the "cores" are placed on shelves, and baked with the surplus heat. This economical and convenient arrangement is peculiar to this foundry.

The copper is put into the crucibles, and well melted, and then the tin and zinc are added. The latter metal is so easily volatilized that it has to be added at the latest possible moment to avoid waste. When the cover of the furnace is pushed back and the molten mass is stirred with a long iron rod a beautiful pale yellow flame, with sometimes a pinkish tinge, plays about the opening, and a fine blue smoke arises.

The making of the moulds is a most interesting study. The models of the objects desired are prepared by skilled workmen, with the most accuracy, and are made of wood and brass. Both the outside and the inside of the casting has to be determined by one of these models. The models for the outsides are affixed to heavy sheets of brass—several to each sheet—a half model one side and its other half on the other side.

This process is peculiar to this foundry, and the first cost of these plates is very great on account of the number of models required. But once made, the plates effect a great saving, as a man can make as many moulds as there are models on each plate almost as easily as he could make one mould. The flasks are two iron boxes, without bottom or top, that exactly fit together. They are filled with fine sand which has been wet with beer or with molasses and water, and a half impression is made on the surface of the sand of each half flask by pressing into it the half models fastened to one side of one of the brass plates. When the two half flasks are put together, therefore, a whole mould is obtained. The "core" is that part of the mould around which the metal runs, and which makes the casting hollow. It is made by packing the prepared sand into a mould made for the purpose, and which opens perpendicularly so as to allow the "core" to come out entire. The cores are taken to the oven and baked before they are ready for use.

As soon as the crucible is lifted out of the furnace the glowing liquid is skimmed of bits of coal and other superfluities, and it is then poured into the flasks. After a short time they are opened, and the hot castings are lifted out of the sand and plunged into water. Boys then pick them up with tongs and carry them into the "snagging" room where all sand is knocked off them, and with file and emory wheel the principal roughnesses are taken off. They are then carried up stairs into the brass finishing room, a large room one hundred by seventy-five, and full of turning lathes, milling machines, and threading machines. The milling consists of cutting smooth the six or eight faces of a nut or similar casting. Their round edges are then turned, after which the interiors are smoothed and drilled out. The seats of this direct acting valve being divergent, as has been stated, the common chuck would not hold it in the lathe in such a position as to enable the drill to cut the the required edge. Mr. Bliss, therefor, has invented for this purpose an adjustable chuck in which the casting can be set at the required angle, and the oblique surface cut as desired. It seems wonderful to a novice to see the tools passing inside a little valve, where a man could scarcely get his fingers, and, without eyes to see or intellect to direct, doing its work with absolute accuracy.

The pieces are then put into another machine and screw threads made on spindles and in the nuts. The parts are next put together and tested under a pressure, after which they are considered finished.

There is another very interesting contrivance made here. It is a hose coupling which is much simpler and more quickly worked than the common one. This is also an invention of Mr. Bliss's. Neither part of the coupling has a thread. One piece slips easily inside of the other, and is drawn up and held firmly by a screw which passes through the outer piece and works against a beveled ring on the inner piece. The whole works very readily and forms a tight joint.

The works are yet new and are doing far from their utmost. At present about fifty men are employed, but the establishment has a capacity of two hundred and can turn out $300,000 worth of work per annum.

Advices from Cloud county, Kansas, state that another fearful storm occurred in that region, by which a number of lives were lost and much property destroyed. The roof of the house owned by Mr. Snyder was blown off and Snyder, his wife and five children, and a farm laborer were buried in the snow and frozen to death within a few miles of the house. A family named Ulrichen shared a similar fate, all being frozen to death.

The Treasury department has decided that the exaction of a fee of 75 per ct. per 100 bushels of salt in all cases of withdrawal in bond to be used in curing fish, whether salt is actually withdrawn from a bonded store or from the importing vessel, provided it be in less quantities than the entire importation, is correct.

A Herald lava bed special says that nothing will be done at present. They are awaiting the fourth infantry, 500 strong, from Little Rock, who are expected to arrive on the 17th instant. The correspondent attributes the great loss of life in the fight on the 26th of April to the desertion of company E, 12th infantry, and some few of the artillery, who, when ordered by Captain Thomas to fall back and hold a bluff in the rear of the troops, to cover the retreat, continued to fall back until they reached camp. The Modocs in the meantime secured the position they were expected to hold. It is said that only 23 Modocs were engaged, and that only two were killed and two badly wounded.

The work of building a second track between the Taunton depot and Weir Junction was begun yesterday, it having been found that a double track will be necessary to accommodate the trains that are proposed to be run this season. The distance is about one mile. During the building of this track, which will take about one week, work will be suspended between Willis Point and Hathaway's wharf, and the gravel train will run from East Freetown to Taunton. The laying of the track will be under the direction of Mr. E. H. Bryant of Mansfield, who after that section is completed, will enter upon the work of laying the second track on the extension, commencing at Logan street.

Prop the Failing.

It is a great blessing to have by nature a strong constitution, but not more than one half the inhabitants of the civilized world are thus provided. Many constitutions are feeble to begin with, many others, originally vigorous, are crippled by over exertion dissipation, unhealthy surroundings, grief, privation or some other portentious cause, before the prime of life is attained. But is this an evil without a remedy or a palliative? No! constitutions can be replaced. Hundreds of thousands of instances might be adduced in which constitutional decay has been arrested by the continuous use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as an invigorant. It is constitutional strength that enables one man to recover from a disease which would be mortal to another destitute of the element of resistance. Whenever a malady of any kind obtains a foothold in any part of the human body, and becomes a chronic fixture there, it is proof positive that the constitution has been mastered by the disease and urgently requires help. In such a case Hostetter's Bitters should be taken at least three times a day, until the natural powers of the system are recruited. Then the morbid principle which generated and feeds the complaint will have to succumb to the influence of animal vigor, aided by the toning, regulating, purifying operation of the Bitters upon the organ or organs in which the ailment is located. There is nothing like this mighty tonic to "prop the failing."

CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED.
SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP,
SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC,
SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS,

Are the only medicines that will cure Pulmonary Consumption.

Sometimes medicines that will stop a cough will often occasion the death of the patient. It locks up the liver, stops the circulation of the blood; hemorrhage follows, and in fact, clogging the action of the ordinary organs that caused the cough.

Liver complaint and dyspepsia are the causes of two-thirds of the cases of consumption. Many are now complaining with a dull pain in the side, the bowels sometimes costive and sometimes too loose, tongue coated, pain in the shoulder blade, feeling sometimes very restless, and other times drowsy; the food that is taken lies heavily on the stomach, accompanied by acidity and belching of wind. These symptoms usually originate from a disordered condition of the stomach or a torpid liver. Persons so affected, if they take one or two heavy colds, and if the cough in these cases be suddenly stopped, the lungs, liver and stomach clog, and remain torpid and inactive, and before the patient is aware of his situation, the lungs are a mass of sores, and ulcerated, and death is the inevitable result.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup is an expectorant which does not contain any opium, nor anything calculated to check a cough suddenly.

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic dissolves the food, mixes with the gastric juice of the stomach, digests easily, nourishes the system, and creates a healthy circulation of the blood. When the bowels are costive, skin sallow, and the patient is of a bilious habit, Schenck's Mandrake Pills are required.

These medicines are prepared by Dr. J. H. SCHENCK & SON, Northeast corner of Sixth and Arch streets, Philadelphia, Penn., and for sale by GEO. C. GOODWIN & CO., 38 Hanover street, Boston, and John F. Henry, 8 College place, New York, Wholesale Agents.

Newport Daily News.

TUESDAY, MAY, 6, 1873.

GENERAL NEWS.

Death of Oakes Ames.

Special dispatch to the News by Franklin line.

BOSTON, May 6. Hon. Oakes Ames had a stroke of paralysis this morning, and has since died.

LATER.

Oakes Ames, reported dead, is still alive, but lies dangerously sick at his home in North Easton, Mass. He is speechless and partially unconscious.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 5, 1873.—Commissioner Douglass has ordered Collector Bailey, at Albany, to enter the workshops of the New York Central road and make a levy of about half a million dollars, chiefly on car wheels and axles. This material is to be hauled to a bonded warehouse, and it is supposed that when once off the company's grounds it will readily find purchasers. Heretofore it has been impossible to obtain bids on the locomotives for fear that the company would interfere with the attempts of private purchasers to remove them.

PENSIONS.

The commissioner of pensions today announced the following highly important ruling: Section 9, of the act of March 3, 1873, provides for no addition to the two dollars' increase of pension in any case. It is a consolidation of section 2 of the act of July 25, 1866, and sections 4 and 5 of the act of July 27, 1868, with an amendment to the former sections, so as to give the same increase to the widow of the soldier or sailor for children by a former wife as for the children by herself, and to the widow of an officer as well as a soldier or sailor. It also gives the increase to all the children under 16 years of age, of officers as well as soldiers and sailors, instead of all but one where there is no widow, or where she has died or remarried.

REVENUE MARINE CHANGES.

Second Lieutenant A. D. Littlefield, from duty on the Mocassin at Newport, to wait orders; 2d L. Sturges, from the Campbell at New London to the Mocassin.

VIENNA EXPOSITION.

Secretary Fish has sent Sydney Webster, his son-in-law, to Vienna, with plenary powers to create a board of commissioners. Thomas McElrath is mentioned as General Van Buren's successor.

FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

MADRID, May 5.—The New York Herald special says there are indications of revolutionary activity. The city is placarded with manifestoes urging the people to demand the immediate proclamation of the federal republic, the abolition of capital punishment, the abolition of State council and the separation of church and State.

The people did not come armed as was threatened.

ROME, May 5.—In accordance with the request of King Victor Emanuel, members of the Cabinet have withdrawn their resignations and resumed their respective follos.

NEW YORK CITY.

NEW YORK, May 5, 1873.—Mayor Havemeyer this afternoon sent to the aldermen his first nomination for the offices created by the new charter: John Wheeler, George Andrews and Severn D. Moulton to be tax commissioner and Mr. Stephen Smith and Professor Charles F. Chandlee as members of the board of health. These names were all laid on the table by a vote of eight or six, all the members of the board being present and voting. The number of votes against immediate confirmation is precisely that which was reported last week to have entered into a combination to control the distribution of offices, and appears to confirm that report which has since been rigorously denied.

Mayor Havemeyer also appointed Henry Clawson, the well-known German lager beer brewer, as an alderman to succeed the late Peter Gilsey an appointment which it was optional with the mayor to make or leave the place vacant until the next general election. The appointment insures the mayor's strength in the board of aldermen and renders any combination against him difficult.

FAILURES.

The large wholesale tea house of Gillett & Co., failed Saturday, and two or three dry goods jobbing firms were obliged to suspend during the past week by the tightness in money. Gillett & Co.'s liabilities were $151,000 of which sum their assets fell short $80,000. The tea market is greatly depressed, and all grades have declined from 10 to 50 per cent. in value.

MISCELLANEOUS.

DIXON, ILL., May 5.—No additional names of the killed are yet known. During the night the workmen got the derricks in position to raise the bridge, and until that tedious work is accomplished hardly anything further can be done. There are crowds of people on the banks of the river this morning viewing the scene of the disaster, the majority of whom are looking for missing friends. The telegraph is kept constantly in use with messages from all parts of the United States. Every house in the city is in mourning. Mrs. P. M. Alexander and Mrs. Vann died this morning from the effects of their injuries. Over fifty persons in all were killed.

ANOTHER FATAL BRIDGE.

ST. LOUIS, May 5.—A terrible accident occurred yesterday afternoon at the bridge being erected over Lamine River, on the northwestern extension of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railroad 14 miles from Sedalia. The false work erected for facilitating the construction of the bridge sank into a quicksand on which it rested, carrying with it the bridge and twelve workmen, and precipitating all into the river below. Wm. McAvoy, Peter Conner and Harry French were killed and eight others were wounded, two of whom are not expected to recover. The bodies of the killed were taken last night to Sedalia, where an inquest was held and a verdict rendered that the insecure foundation of the false works was the cause of the accident.

Conanicut Park.

PERSONS desiring Cottage Lots at this new watering place, will do well to call on the agent at as early a day as possible. In view of the improvements in progress, prices will very soon be advanced. Those who are asking themselves as to the probabilities of realizing a profit on a real estate investment at this point, should consider the following facts:

The company owning the property is made up of men of enterprise, who will expend all the money that is necessary to make the Park one of the most attractive places in the country. They are already building one of the largest and most substantial wharves in the bay, and it will be ready in a few weeks, when all the Providence and Newport steamers will make a landing. The hotel will be in readiness for guests on or before the first of July. Eight or ten cottages will be erected in time for occupancy the present season. Several miles of streets are already made, and a large number of workmen are engaged in building others. The engineers have laid out the property in good taste, dividing the land into Parks and drives, one of the main avenues extending along the shore more than three miles, making one of the finest drives in the country. The lots on Summit and other avenues have a view of the opposite shores, from Narragansett Pier to Wickford, Greenwich, Rocky Point, Bristol, Portsmouth and Newport, affording a prospect of some fifty miles extent along the water's edge, and enabling the spectator to look into eleven different townships without changing his position. These and other advantages afford a guaranty of the success of the enterprise especially as the first purchasers buy at so small a price. Lots have already been sold to parties in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Providence, Taunton, Bridgewater, &c.

The plat may be seen at the office of the undersigned at No. 13 Church Street.

THE WHALE'S REVENGE.

It is melancholy to read that the last of the whales of Nantucket has just been sold. Gas kerosene has made the whale of no account in commerce.—Morning Paper.

Ye whales that in the Artic seas
Have long by cruel man been worried,
Lay by the shore and take your ease,
No longer need your hearts be flurried.

The whalers of Nantucket's isle
No more your "ile" will seek to try out,
Gas, kerosene, inventions vile,
Have knocked Nantucket's brighest eye out.

Wail not for Nan, ye lightsome whales,
To you her troubles should be pleasure,
Then slap your billows with your tails,
And blithely dance a joyful measure,
Revenge is yours; for man, the lubber,
Whose cheerful sport is was for ages,
To drive his harpoon in your blubber
Now blubbers over his lost wages.

And worse than all, his oil run out.
In darkness, now, he forced to topple is,
The victim of bad imps that flout
His aching eyes with gas monopolies.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.
CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents."

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

"MR. R. H. EDDY has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part, leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.

WOMAN.

By an immense practice, extending through a period of many years, having within that time treated over nine thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and agreeable medicine that meets the indications presented by that class of diseases with positive certainty and exactness.

To designate this natural specific compound, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my most matured appreciation of its value, based upon actual and witnessed realities. As a close observer, I have while witnessing its positive results in the few special diseases incident to the separate organism of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will at all times and under all circumstances act kindly and in harmony with the laws which govern the female system, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician. Nay, even more, so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who employs it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. If a beneficial effect is not experienced by the time two-thirds of the contents of the bottle are used, I will, on the return of the bottle, two-thirds of the medicine having been taken according to directions, and the case being one for which I recommend it, promptly refund the money paid for it. Had I not the most perfect confidence in its virtues, I could not offer it as I do under these conditions; but having witnessed its truly miraculous cures in thousands of cases, I feel warranted and perfectly safe in risking both my reputation and my money on its merits.

The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures—as if by magic and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing Down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, and very many other chronic diseases peculiar to woman not mentioned here, in which, as well as in the cases which I have mentioned, my Favorite Prescription works cures—the marvel of the world. This medicine I do not extol as a cure-all, but it admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm in any state or condition. It is A MOST POWERFUL RESTORATIVE TONIC to the general as well as the sexual system, also combining the most valuable nervine properties. Both the muscular and nervous forces are strengthened and built up by its use. It will be found invaluable in diseases incident to pregnancy, and can be taken in moderate doses with perfect safety while in that state. Indeed, it is a Mother's Cordial, and so prepares the system for parturition that it renders child-labor easy. I have received the heartfelt praise from hundreds of mothers for the inestimable benefits thus conferred.

I offer my Favorite Prescription to the Ladies of America with the sincerity of an honest heart, and for their best welfare. Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in my TREATISE ON CHRONIC DISEASES OF THE GENERATIVE AND URINARY ORGANS, sent secure from observation upon receipt of two postage stamps. It treats minutely on those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to their management.

New York Patent Carpet Renovating Co.

ARE now ready to receive orders at their office. Carpets cleaned and restored to their original beauty and brightness, without removing the same from the floor

CERTAIN AND INFALLIBLE.

The process by which this extraordinary result is obtained is one of the most important revolutions in DOMESTIC ECONOMY.

However soiled your Brussels, Velvets, Wilton, Axminster, Moquet, Ambusson, and other carpets or Rugs may be; be they covered with Dust, Dirt, Grease, or Coal Smoke, with this process, the same can be made clean and bright and apparently as new as when delivered from the hands of the manufacturer.

THIS GREAT DESIDERATUM

Is obtained without removing the carpet from the floor, or requiring the removal of furniture from the room, a convenience which every Housekeeper will appreciate. The old system of Carpet beating and shaking will free a carpet of loose dirt only, the dirt which has hardened the wool and defaced the colors as well as grease stains and coal smoke will not be removed.

WE CAN POSITIVELY STATE,

No matter how old and soiled a carpet may be as long as the nap is not injured, the same can be restored to its original beauty.

Circulars and references of the many who have tested our process, can be had at the office No. 190 Thames Street, Newport.
